Green to Gold Briefing

The Army's ROTC Green to Gold Scholarship Program provides selected active duty enlisted members of the Army an opportunity to complete their baccalaureate degree and obtain a commission. If you are interested in becoming a commissioned officer, you may want to attend this briefing at the Education Center on Thursday, 29 March 2007 at 12:00 am. Call 684-2496 for a reservation.

"GoArmyEd 101"

What Every Solider Needs to Know

Education Counselors will be available in Classroom #8 to provide instruction on how to successfully navigate the GoArmyEd portal in order to request Tuition Assistance (TA).

GoArmyEd enables Soldiers to request TA directly via the World Wide Web anytime, anywhere – regardless of geographical location.

GoArmyEd "101" will be offered each Wednesday beginning 21 February thru 7 March 2007 from 1530-1700. So, come join the class anytime during these hours.

Hire-in-Advance Program

You can now make a seamless transition from the military to a teaching career through the "Hire-in-Advance Program". Troops to Teachers has partnered with school districts throughout the nation that will offer you a Letter of Intent securing employment up to two years in advance.
